JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

POSITION: LEAD TEACHER

DEPARTMENT: Head Start

LOCATION: Fallon

SHIFT: 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday- Friday

STATUS: $12.40 - $17.44 DOE Exempt- Not Eligible for Overtime

OPEN: Open Until Filled CLOSES:

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible for overall center and classroom operations, including planning, record-keeping, carrying out activities, engaging families, maintaining the classroom facilities, supervising children, parent/teacher conferences, classroom volunteers, as well as mentoring other staff at site.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES including but not limited to:
Establish mutually respectful partnerships with families to enhance the quality of their children’s education in Head Start.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children and families must demonstrate their ability to do the following:

- Conduct outreach and door-to-door recruitment of children throughout the year;
- Communicate effectively using appropriate verbal and non-verbal messages and reflective listening skills;
- Conduct 2 home visits a year with initial home visit prior to children starting school;
- Provide parents/guardian with orientation on Philosophy of Head Start and services provided;
- Conduct a minimum of two Parent/Teacher conferences to collaborate in the development of School Readiness Goals for the individual children;
- Report child’s progress and update goals as needed during the school year.

Plans, trains, engages and supports families in be help their children reach children’s School Readiness Goals.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children and families must demonstrate their ability to do the following:

- Organize, conduct and summarize initial child screenings within 45 days from the first day child enters school.
  To include but not limited to:
  o Developmental screenings, Mental Health Observations, Health screenings (Physical, Dental, vision, Nutrition, height & weight charts)
- Review the Summary of screening with families to collaborate in the development of children’s goals and transition activities;
- Engages parents/guardians in classroom and home activities to promote school readiness goals:
  o Provide specific child activities for home to promote skills acquisition.
- Provide opportunities, encouragement and recognition for parents/guardians to volunteer in a variety of modalities to enhance the development of children in the program;
Conducts, maintains and analyzes weekly observations on enrolled children to document progress towards individual goals.

- Assist and engage parents in the transitions of children into other programs and school, including children with disabilities;
- Advocate for the children and support parents as the primary teacher for their children and full partners in the education of their children;
- Inform, assist and encourage parents to be involved in the referral process for further need of assessment when children are not meeting expectations appropriate for their developmental level;
- Provide parents with assistance, information and support necessary to actively participate in Inter-disciplinary team meetings, for the diagnosis and development of Individual Educational Plans (IEP) in a timely manner.

Provide opportunities for parents to get engaged in group activities as learners, educators, advocates and community leaders.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children and families must demonstrate their ability to do the following:

- Attend Parent and community functions (parent meetings, trainings, parent/child activities, etc);
- Provide Curriculum Planning reports to Center Committee and Tribal Leaders;
- Provide training to parents on but not limited to activities that promote Physical and Health; Social/Emotional; Approaches to Learning Language & Literacy; and Cognition and General Knowledge:
  - Child Development, stages & stages, brain development, etc.
  - Guidance Techniques and strategies.
  - Nutrition Activities/Budgeting.
  - Importance of school attendance towards school readiness.
- Share the curriculum objectives for interest areas in the classroom with parents and community;
- Seek and document ideas for curriculum planning and donations of recyclable materials to use in classroom experiences;
- Facilitate and guide center parent committees towards appropriate group activities that support and enhance the children’s development as a focus;
- Involve parents in the self-assessment of the program to develop or update program goals;
- Involve parents in the process of community assessment to identify strengths and needs, available resources and advocate for needed services in the community.

Develop and implement developmentally appropriate experiences for pre-school children to meet school readiness goals in the mandated 5 essential domains of Physical Health, Social/Emotional, Approaches to Learning, Language & Literacy and, Cognition & General Knowledge.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children must demonstrate their ability to do the following:

- Provides a smooth planned program of experiences and activities, which support and enhance developmentally appropriate practice for preschool children and parent engagement;
- Utilizes appropriate discipline and guidance techniques such as re-direction, positive reinforcement and setting acceptable limits;
- Collect accurate child data thru observations and child work samples regularly;
- Analyze data gathered and provide reports on child outcomes to demonstrate progress towards SRG in the Fall, Winter and Spring;
- Identify trends and patterns of learning for program improvement;
- Develop children’s goals and objectives based on ongoing assessment to demonstrate progress towards School Readiness Goals (SRG);
- Plan and implement daily experiences to meet individual children’s goals and objectives;
- Develop a daily routine with alternating periods of strenuous activity and periods of rest or light activity to avoid over-stimulation and fatigue on children.
- With a minimum of one hour of moderate to strenuous physical activity (Music and Movement, Indoor and or Outdoors, etc);
- Engage in all activities with children to promote Emotional Support, Classroom Organization and Instructional Support as listed in the CLASS domains and indicators;
- Develops activities based on IEP’s goals so the child with disabilities receives integrated and full range of child development services, as all other children, in the least restrictive environment.

Responsible for the management of fiscal planning, budgeting, inventory and purchasing of center supplies and equipment necessary to maintain and support program goals.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with families must demonstrate their ability to do the following:
- Conduct and review inventory of classroom materials, equipment, and consumable supplies;
- Develop a list of prioritized materials/equipment needed to carry out classroom experiences based on children’s goals;
- Responsible for ordering necessary supplies & materials to effective operation of the center;
- Stay within the center budget to purchase necessary supplies;
- Provide Center Committee a Report on center budget and facilities status.

Provide a Safe and Healthy Learning Environment for the children enrolled in the program.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children must demonstrate their ability to do the following:
- Conduct facility safety checklists indoors and outdoors in accordance with the IHS Health Code;
- Conduct regular emergency evacuations and fire safety drills;
- Maintain a presentable, welcoming and clean physical environment for children, parents and community;
- Work cooperatively with local tribal maintenance personnel to continue with consistent and ongoing maintenance of facilities.

Serve as a role model, a team leader, mentor and trainer for self-development and the development of others in the center team to acquire necessary skills to do their job duties.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children, families and staff must demonstrate their ability to do the following:
- Attend community college classes to acquire necessary staff qualification degree for the position;
- Attend Pre-Service and In-Service to maintain abreast of changes in strategies and skills to perform job duties in the classroom and as a productive leader of the team; minimum of 15 clock hours of training per year;
- Conduct effective staff meetings to maintain open communication with the center team and management staff;
- Plans curriculum planning sessions to include all center staff and volunteers when available;
- Supervises classroom, kitchen and Family Services staff to implement activities planned;
- Participates in the development and updating of individual education plan for self and subordinates;
- Provides substitutes with orientation and guidance prior to first day as substitute;
- Provides regular training for substitutes and center staff in specific needed areas;
- Provides guidance, hands-on-training, direction, and delegate duties to other center staff accordingly;
- Provides subordinates with regular positive feedback and strategies to improve performance;
- Develops, adjusts and monitors daily schedule of center staff. (attendance, breaks, lunches, etc).

Become an integral part of community by developing and maintaining positive community partnerships with local resources.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children, families and communities must demonstrate their ability to do the following:
- Works collaboratively and maintains a positive working relationship with other agencies in the community who provides services to children, including children with disabilities;
- Develops and implements a smooth transition to Local Schools Agencies and Childcare centers;
- Assists with the on-going Child Find efforts to recruit and enroll children, including children with disabilities;
- Becomes knowledgeable and follow the Head Start Program Screening, Referral and IEP Process;
- Participates as a member of the Multi-disciplinary Team (MDT) and Individual Education Plan (IEP) team;
- Provides Reports to the Local Tribal Leaders in all aspects of Program operations.

Respect and respond competently to the culture, traditions, lifestyle, language and values of each family and community.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with children and families must demonstrate their ability to do the following:
- Be knowledgeable about and sensitive to each family’s values, beliefs, traditions, cultural influences, makeup and circumstances;
- Work with families representing different cultures using a culturally competent and flexible approach;
- Identify and reflect on personal values, experiences and biases that facilitate and present barriers in working with certain groups of people.

Contribute to effective program practices and maintain a commitment to professionalism.

Indicators: Head Start staff working with families must demonstrate their ability to do the following:

- Perform record-keeping, internal and external reporting tasks in a timely and objective fashion;
- Effectively utilize supervisory professional development and technical assistance resources to improve competence;
- Contribute to and participate in strategic planning, program self-assessment and other efforts to improve program services and agency responsiveness to families;
- Make decision and act based on child development principles, theories, and practices;
- Articulate an awareness of self, values and ethics as the impact on working with families;
- Maintain professional boundaries and confidentiality;
- Exercise good judgment, courtesy, and tactfulness in dealing with staff, parents and community;
- Respond positively and constructively to common inquiries or complaints from parents, community, subordinates and supervisors.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Bachelor of Arts (baccalaureate) or advanced Degree in Early Childhood Education;
- An Associates of Arts Degree with emphasis in ECE (Early Childhood Education) or 6 credits in ECE;
- In lieu of the Degree in Early Childhood listed above, must have the minimum of a CDA with three years of full time teaching experience in a preschool setting, preferably Head Start;
- Must pass a State and Federal Criminal History background check (PL 101.630 and PL 101-637);
- Possess a valid Driver’s License with the required state auto insurance;
- Have reliable transportation to attend training/technical assistance and conduct home visits;
- Willingness to work primarily with families residing in high-risk communities.

REQUIRED KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES:

- Child Development principles;
- Interview Skills and mentoring co-workers;
- Goal Setting, Planning and Reporting strategies;
- Basic computer proficiency skills;
- Operate office machines – i.e. Xerox, Fax, Calculator, Laminator, etc.
- Knowledge of and sensitivity to the diverse population, with emphasis on American Indian/Alaskan Native Cultures and able to serve and effectively communicate with the children and families, enrolled in the ITCN Program;
- State and Tribal Child Abuse & Neglect Reporting Laws;
- Strong oral and written communication skills.
ABILITY TO:

- Read and interpret documents, such as Head Start Performance Standards, ITCN Personnel Policies; and a variety of instructions furnished in written and oral form;
- Write routine reports, correspondence and business communications that conform to prescribed style and format;
- Speak effectively;
- Obtain First Aid/CPR Certification, TB & Hepatitis Screening;
- Travel away from assigned site for periods of a week at a time will be required;
- As an exempt employee; this position will be required to participate in program activities outside of their normal work hours and scheduled work days.

Work Environment:
Work is primarily performed in a standard office setting that is well lit, temperature controlled with low to moderate noise levels. Work is also performed in a variety of early childhood education centers with moderate to loud noise levels, in well lit and temperature controlled environments. May require some exposure to anti-bacterial hand sanitizers and standard household cleaning products as well as uneven terrain when carrying supplies to and from Head Start centers.

Physical Demands:
The work outlined in this job description involves considerable sitting, standing, walking, bending and lifting (maximum of 45 lbs.) on a daily basis. Employee must be able to respond when needed by prompt appearance at a required location. Employee must be able to work under physically and emotionally stressed conditions and may be occasionally subject to verbal abuse, threats and physical violence from angry, hostile or disgruntle community and/or family members. The employee may be exposed to communicable diseases. This employee must have specific vision abilities, to include close vision, distant vision, peripheral vision and depth perception.
An employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job must meet the physical demands described here. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Supervisory: This position is under the immediate supervision, evaluation and direction of the Head Start Site Manager and/or Head Start Director. This position supervises and/or mentors other center staff.

Note: The above statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work being performed by the person assigned to this job. They are not intended to be an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties, skills, and physical demands required.

PREFERENCE: Preference in filling vacancies is given to qualified Native American candidates in accordance with the Indian Preference Act (Title 25, U.S. Code, Section 472 & 473). However, Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada is an Equal Opportunity Employer and all qualified applicants will be considered in accordance with the provisions in Section 703 of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, amended in 1991.

HOW TO APPLY: Applications are available on our website.
Submit your completed application, resume, copies of degree/diploma, etc to the Personnel Office by the closing date listed above. Applications may also be submitted by fax to 775-284-3407, or emailed to personnel@itcn.org.

The Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada, Inc. promotes and maintains a drug free workplace. All individuals accepting employment with ITCN may be subject to a pre-employment drug screen and criminal background check.
ITCN offers a comprehensive benefits package to eligible full-time employees including: employer paid medical, dental, vision & life insurance, paid vacation & sick leave, 12 paid holidays per year, and opportunities for training and career advancement.

Preference in filling vacancies will be given to qualified Native American candidates in accordance with the Indian Preference Act (Title 25, U.S. Code Section 472 & 473). However, the Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer and will consider all qualified applicants in accordance with the provisions set forth in Section 703(i) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended in 1991.