CERTIFICATIONS, ASSURANCES, AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

RECEIPTS AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION. All donations made directly to an individual or organization must submit receipts and/or documentation that the money was used for the intended purpose. Failure to use a donation for the purpose represented to the Fallon Business Council may result in one or more of the following consequences:

1. Denial of future donation requests for a period of three (3) years.
2. Required repayment from any tribal disbursements, including current and future per capita payment distributions.
3. Possible civil litigation to recoup funds in the appropriate court of legal jurisdiction.
4. Possible criminal prosecution for the offense of fraud or theft.

INELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES, RESTRICTIONS, AND LIMITATIONS (applicable to donation requests)

1. After-the-Fact Donations. Requests for donations to recoup money for past events/fundraisers, etc. will not normally be considered except in urgent and/or unusual circumstances as determined by the Council.
2. Delinquent Accounts. If an individual has any delinquent account with the Tribe or owes any monies to the Tribe, he or she will not be eligible for a donation. This may be waived for situations involving an Emergency Assistance Activity application.
3. Personal Debts/Bills. The Tribe will not consider donation requests to pay personal debts (i.e., house payments, rent, food, clothing, utility bills, telephone bills, cell phone bills, cable TV bills, court fines, child care, child support, other forms of court-ordered restitution, credit card payments, car payments, or other auto related costs, loan payments, etc.). If this type of donation request has been submitted, the Tribal Secretary's Office will refer the requester to the Tribe's Social Services Department or the state TANF Program where the individual lives to see if there are alternate resources for assistance.
4. Tribal Work. Donations for any and all work-related activities of the Tribe and its departments/programs or any and all work-related activities of any tribal corporation (for-profit and non-profit) will not be considered. Donations will not be made for the travel costs or expenses for any employee or committee members of the Tribe for activities/functions carried out as part of their official duties.
5. Previously Misused Donation Funds. Requests/applications of any kind from any individual or organization who has previously received funding from the Tribe and failed to follow the accountability procedures or misused the funds provided by the Tribe are not eligible except for after three (3) years and any prior donations provided have been repaid to the Tribe.
6. Limitations on Monies Received Annually. An applicant (individual or organization) cannot receive more than $1,000 in tribal donations, collectively, during any calendar year.
7. Proof of Fundraising. All applications, with the exception of the Emergency Assistance, shall include documentation of all fundraising that has been completed or is scheduled to be done. Applicants that have not done any type of fundraising are ineligible for receive donations as that the Tribe should be the last resort and not the only contributor to a donation request.
8. Higher Education Scholarships. Application requests for scholarship or funds to pay tuition, books, etc. will not be funded. Tribal Members need to apply through the Tribe's Education programs for scholarship assistance.
